Civilian Response to Active Shooter Events

Learning Objectives:

- The history of active shooters
- The Avoid, Deny, Defend plan for survival
- What to expect when the police arrive

Captain Troy Squire has been with the Lawrence Police Department since September of 1996. He graduated from the Lawrence Police Department's 16th Basic Recruit Academy. In 1999 he was assigned to the Douglas County Drug Enforcement Unit as a narcotics investigator. In 1999, he was also assigned to the Lawrence Police Department's Crisis Response Team. In 2004 he was promoted to Detective, and in 2006 he was promoted to Sergeant. As a Sergeant he was assigned to supervise the drug enforcement unit, the investigations division, one of the crisis response teams, and numerous patrol shifts. In 2017 he was promoted to Captain and assigned to the patrol division. Captain Squire currently serves as Captain over day shift patrol, and is responsible for the department's active shooter preparedness.

Supporting Mental Health in the Workplace

This program will provide an overview of the Mental Health First Aid program, an international program designed to engage conversation and teach individuals how to respond to someone who is having a mental health crisis. In addition, the program will cover crisis services in the Douglas County community, and the value of offering mental health support in the workplace following a workplace crisis or sentinel event. This program will discuss the Bert Nash CMHC initiatives to offer public education which helps to aid friends, neighbors, family and co-workers when needed.

Nicole Rials is the Director of Urgent Care Programs at the Bert Nash Community Mental Health Center. She began working in the field of mental health in 1995. Nicole holds a Master's degree in Social Welfare and is a Licensed Specialist Clinical Social Worker (LSCSW). She has worked in the Lawrence Community as a private practitioner and through collaboration with local agencies. Her clinical focus has been on both child and adult populations and include the areas of crisis, trauma, hospice, suicide assessment and intervention. Additionally, Nicole has great interest and experience with building interface and collaboration between mental health services and Law Enforcement.
